

Spreading Your Wings Workshop

The 2012 Spring Workshop is Open to all members, prospects & adult volunteers to attend. Nebraska Job's Daughters will learn how to hone their speaking skills and increase their ritual knowledge. They will Learn, from an example, of how Job's Daughters can assist you in becoming successful in their passions, and we will all learn how beautiful we are through the Dove, Real Beauty session that increases self-esteem.

This workshop will assist the girls with much needed guidance, inspiration and skills that can be used every day. Everything from strengthen the girls resolve to be examples to their peers to learning how their self-esteem is learned and that they can protect it by surrounding themselves with peers with high morals.

Breakout sessions will include a photo Scavenger hunt, crafts for the 10-12 year olds and beauty tips for the 13-15 year olds along with time to build new friendships will be FUN highlights for the girls. In addition we will also teach the 16-20 year old girls how to write for scholarships, their resumes' and interview for a job. Adults will be participating with the girls in various sessions as well as participating in learning more about the business of successfully organizing a Bethel. A sleep over at the Hastings Masonic Center will allow the girls to continue the fun. Those wishing to not sleep the night at the Masonic center are welcome to make other arrangements. Don't forget a Sleeping bag, pillow and enthusiasm!!
